YOUR RIGHTS

Access to your information: You have the right to request a copy of the personal information about you that we hold.

Correcting your information: We want to make sure that your personal information is accurate, complete and up to date and you may ask us to correct any personal information about you that you believe does not meet these standards.

Deletion of your information: You have the right to ask us to delete personal information about you where:

- > you consider that we no longer require the information for the purposes for which it was obtained
- > you have validly objected to our use of your personal information - see 'Objecting to how we may use your information' below
- > our use of your personal information is contrary to law or our other legal obligations
- > we are using your information with your consent and you have withdrawn your consent - see 'withdrawing consent to use your information' below.

Restricting how we may use your information: In some cases, you may ask us to restrict how we use your personal information. This right might apply, for example, where we are checking the accuracy of personal information about you that we hold or assessing the validity of any objection you have made to our use of your information. The right might also apply where there is no longer a basis for using your personal information but you do not want us to delete the data. Where this right is validly exercised, we may only use the relevant personal information with your consent, for legal claims or where there are other public interest grounds to do so.

Objecting to how we may use your information: Where we use your personal information to perform tasks carried out in the public interest then, if you ask us to, we will stop using that personal information unless there are overriding legitimate grounds to continue.

Withdrawing consent to use your information: Where we use your personal information with your consent you may withdraw that consent at any time and we will stop using your personal information for the purpose(s) for which consent was given which will disable us to provide the investment/fund services any longer.

Please contact our Data Protection Officer if you wish to exercise any of these rights.
